

Application for Yancey Barnhart Frio County Junior Livestock Scholarship

Social Security Number _____

Complete the following information and return to your advisor on or before April 1st, along with 2 letters of recommendation.

- I. Academic Achievements
 - A. Submit an official high school transcript. It should include 9th grade through at least the first semester of 12th grade. Transcripts must be signed by your high school counselor or administrator and include ACT/SAT scores. Only a social security number should appear on the transcript. (Make sure your name and address do not appear on the transcript.)

- II. Frio County Junior Livestock Show Participation
 - A. List areas of involvement/accomplishments in the Frio County Junior Livestock Show. (Example: 1999 - exhibited American steer-Placed 4th in class won Jr. Beef Showmanship; 1999-Country Store Senior Division-Desserts- Grand Champion.)

Qualifications for Yancey Barnhart Frio County Junior Livestock Scholarship

1. Must be a member in good standing of the Dilley FFA, Pearsall FFA, or Frio County 4-H clubs and must be enrolled in a public, private or home school and be actively attending classes.
2. Must have exhibited some type of animal in the Frio County Junior Livestock Show within the past 4 years.
3. Must attend an accredited educational institution upon graduation.

Date _____

Name

(Last) (First) (Middle)

Home Address:

Name of college you plan to attend:

What club are you a member of?

III Extracurricular activities

A. List the extracurricular activities in which you participated in during high school, such as National Honor Society, judging teams, leadership roles, etc. describe how you spent your time outside your livestock project activities, why you devoted time to a particular activity and the impact the activity had on your personal development.

IV Community Service

A. List citizenship and community service activities. List activity, year and your role in the activity. Describe your development as a result of your involvement in these citizenship and community service activities and what impact your involvement provided you to have on other people. Put emphasis on the quality of your experience than quantity.

V. Essay

A. Write a brief essay (up to one page in length) describing something you learned through your participation in the Frio County Junior Livestock Show that has or will aid you in accomplishing your goal(s) for the future. For example: work, ethic, character quality.